

Morning Announcements

Wednesday April 7th, 2021

TODAY:

- RAIDERS, LISTEN UP. It is now April and there is a sitting of the Literacy and Numeracy exams this month. If missed, or have not yet written your provincial numeracy or literacy exam, please sign up by scanning the QR code at the front office or outside the counselling area. Please see Mr. V if you have any questions

GRADS:

- Want to get involved and learn about science, technology, engineering and mathematics or STEM in your community? Join the PuMP+ virtual STEM event on April 10 Saturday from 12 to 3 pm. It is free for all high school students in Vancouver and across B.C. to learn more about opportunities in job shadowing, summer high school programs, volunteer positions, and laboratory research. Students will be given the opportunity to move between interactive booths that suit their interests, participate in raffles for different prizes, and network. Registration details have been sent to your deltalearns email or see Ms. Abad for any questions.
- A reminder to grads about the Coast Capital Youth Education Award. This award is for students who stayed committed to their education even through adversity. Whether it's financial difficulties, family issues, personal loss, lack of supports, or health challenges. Please submit your brag sheet and application form to Ms. Abad on or before April 12.

DELTA PRIDE WEEK:

- It's Pride Week in Delta! This is a time to celebrate LGBTQ2S+ identities. Check out the awesome display outside the foods room for lots of great info.
- Today's Pride fact: Do you know what Stonewall was? Stonewall was a riot outside The Stonewall Inn in New York on June 28th, 1969. This riot and the parade that followed a year later, the first ever Pride Parade, are considered to be the start of the LGBTQ2S+ rights movement. Now there are pride parades in many cities all over the world.

TO THE OFFICE:

-

These have been your morning announcements Delview

HAVE A CELEBRATORY DAY