TODAY:

- Last day for the Hanukkah draw is in front of the library during lunch. Put your name in the box and get a chance to win a gift! Yesterday and today's winners are Grade 8 students: HIMMAT CHAHIL and HARVEEN MOOKER!!! Please pick up your gift from the office. Happy Hanukkah!!!
- For those who are interested in Delview's Gaming Club, we have a session today after school in Room 144. There we play games like Valurant and Counter Strike. See you there after school in the computer lab.
- Attention Delview: Please come and check the lost and found at the office before it's all donated!

UPCOMING:

- Reminder to all students, if you would like to join the Anti-racism team at Delview and fight racism at our school, then come to an important meeting on Monday Dec 6 at lunch in the library..
- UBC will have an application process with hands-on workshop for Indigenous students (First Nations, Métis, and/or Inuit) on December 4 Saturday at 10:00am An indigenous recruiter advisors will walk you through a demonstration of UBC's online application, and provide tips on applying for UBC's Indigenous-specific awards.. On the same day, a campus meeting will be held at 11:30am. Grade 12 indigenous students are encouraged to attend both events and Grade 10 and 11s are invited to attend the campus tour. Details have been sent to your deltalearns email.

GRADS

- Attention Delview Grads It is that time again to meet with your Capstone Teacher Mentors. Please arrange to meet next week, December 6-10. The purpose of this meeting is to provide an update regarding progress, next steps, or to gain some advice with struggles. If you have not met with your Capstone Teacher Mentor yet, submitted your Capstone proposal, or even started your Capstone Project this is a fantastic time to do so before the Winter break. DO NOT CONTINUE TO AVOID YOUR CAPSTONE !!!!!!!!!!! Remember, successful completion of CLC 12 (assignments and Capstone) are required in order to be eligible to Graduate.
