

Morning Announcements

Tuesday, February 23, 2021

TODAY:

- Listen up Delview, this is important! Bullying is a major problem in our schools, workplaces, homes, and online. The COVID-19 pandemic has affected us all and shown the importance of helping one another and advocating for those who need it. Tomorrow, on February 24th, is PINK SHIRT DAY. Tomorrow wear PINK to help raise awareness of these issues.
- Tomorrow, at 2:00pm Mr Kung and Mr Turpin are hosting an online information session about Innovation 10. Grade nines interested in getting more information about Innovation 10 can e-mail Mr Kung or Mr Turpin to get a link to the online meeting.

GRADS:

- Good Morning Delview Grads: Capstone Presentations are coming up after Spring Break (April 12-16), soooooooo it is time to meet with your Capstone Teacher Mentors prior to Spring Break to receive information on:
 - The presentation process
 - How to prepare for your presentation
 - Helpful hints

Don't delay, please see your Capstone Teacher Mentor ASAP.

- Grad Committee - Reminder there is a meeting in the library at 12:55 today.

ON THIS DAY IN CANADIAN HISTORY:

- In 1909, Canadian John Alexander Douglas McCurdy made the first powered flight in Canada, aboard his plane, the Silver Dart. The Silver Dart was an aircraft built of steel tubing, bamboo, friction tape, wire and wood, covered in rubberized silk and had no brakes!

TO THE OFFICE:

- Moeka Okazaka

HAVE AN ADVENTUROUS DAY!
