- HEY RAIDERS, THERE LOTS OF ANNOUNCEMENTS TODAY, SO STRAP IN, & LISTEN UP!!!

TODAY:

- Today is Pink Shirt Day. Bullying is a major problem in our schools, workplaces, homes, and online. The COVID-19 pandemic has affected us all and shown the importance of helping one another and advocating for those who need it. Today, staff and students that are wearing PINK are doing so to help raise awareness of these issues.
- Today, at 2:00pm Mr Kung and Mr Turpin are hosting an online information session about Innovation 10. Grade nines interested in getting more information about Innovation 10 can e-mail Mr Kung or Mr Turpin to get a link to the online meeting.
- CALL - OF - DUTY! Do you play Call of Duty? Would you like to win the title of best Call of Duty player at Delview? Sign up this week in front of the library at the start of lunch and see how you match up against other Raiders. Registration is $5 AND parental consent is required. The top 2 finishers will earn a cash prize. Registration ends this Thursday.
- The Yearbook team would like to give all Delview students the chance to submit photos for the Yearbook. If you have great photos from this school year with your friends we would like to feature them in the Yearbook. Look for posters in the hallways or slide announcements on the TVs for the Google Form link.

GRADS:

- Attention Delview Grads! It is important for you to meet with your Capstone Teacher Mentors one last time prior to Spring Break in order to receive important information regarding your Capstone Presentations which will be happening the week of April 12-16. DON'T MISS THIS IMPORTANT GRADUATION REQUIREMENT.
- A reminder to Grads who have applied to Douglas College or in the process of applying. Their NEXT Steps online session is today February 25th at 4:30pm. Learn about admission, financial aid, registering for classes and many more. Students need to pre-register for this event to receive the zoom meeting link. Details on how to register had been sent to your deltalearns account. If you have any questions, see Ms. Abad in the Career Centre.
- SFU has an exciting new scholarship initiative called The Ugglia Family Scholarship, which will be comprised of 10 full-ride opportunities for deserving students applying to either the Beedie School of Business or to a program in the Faculty of Applied Sciences. This new scholarship will be available for the incoming class of Fall 2021. Interested students please check your deltalearns account to sign up and be the first to receive more details.
- A reminder to grads that the KPU's (Kwantlen Polytechnic University) application deadline for limited intake programs is on March 1st

ON THIS DAY IN CANADIAN HISTORY:

- In 2010, during the Vancouver Whistler Olympic Winter Games, the United States and Canada went into Overtime in the Men's Hockey Finals tied at two goals a piece. Sidney Crosby scored the game-winning goal off a pass from Jarome Iginla, seven minutes and forty seconds into overtime giving Canada victory over the United States, in the final athletic competition of the 2010 games.

TO THE OFFICE:

- To the Office can we also please have; Jacob Marek, Evan Madigan and Barinder Dhillon
- AND The following Raiders have earned a prize: Baray Sidhu, Dayton Maclaren and Jaydon Nager. Please claim your from the office.

HAVE A GOLDEN DAY!
