UPCOMING:

- A reminder that it's Black Shirt Day against Racism this Friday. Join Delview staff and students in wearing black shirts as a symbol of anti-racism.
- Are you a student who would be interested in learning some basic Japanese? If so, please see Mr. Birt in the Career Center
- Are you a Grade 10 or 11 student who enjoys working with your hands and are contemplating a career in the Trades? If so, please see Mr. Birt in the Career Center for more information and for an application package.

GRADS:

THIS DAY IN HISTORY:

- In 1928, RCA and General Electric install three test television sets in homes in Schenectady, New York allowing American inventor E.F.W. Alexanderson to demonstrate the first home television receiver which delivered a poor and unsteady 1.5 square inch picture

TO THE OFFICE:

Have a SUPER Day

A large, semi-transparent watermark of the Delview Raiders logo is centered on the page. The logo features a stylized, fierce-looking character with spiky hair and a wide, toothy grin, wearing a red and white striped shirt. The word "DELVIEW" is written in a bold, sans-serif font above the character's head, and the word "RAIDERS" is written in a larger, bold, sans-serif font below the character's chest. The entire logo is rendered in a light pink or red color with a white outline.
