

Morning Announcements

Monday, November 8, 2021

Good Morning Delview Staff and Students. November 8th is acknowledged as Canadian National Indigenous Veterans Day. As we begin our week, and acknowledge how fortunate we are to be able to work and study on the unceded ancestral territory of the Musqueam, Tsawassen, and Tsleil-Waututh nations, we also commemorate the contributions of Indigenous veterans in the First and Second World Wars, as well as the Korean War. This morning, we invite all Delview Staff and Students to join for a moment of silence to express our gratitude for the contributions Indigenous veterans have made to Canada and the world.

(Pause for a moment of silence: Count 15 steamboats)

Thank you. Please take time throughout this day, and week to remember the sacrifices made by Indigenous veterans. Lest We Forget!

And now we will continue with our regular morning announcements.

TODAY:

- Hey Delview, the months are getting colder and some people are in desperate need of warm blankets!!! Starting today through next week Friday, Nov. 19, please donate ONLY gently used or new BLANKETS and SLEEPING BAGS. Donations will be accepted in front of the library at lunch and for every donation your name will be put into a draw to win some prizes!!! Come on Delview, let's give back to our community!!!
- Attention all students, this Wednesday, November 10, there will be a FORMAL DAY event. Delview will be commemorating Remembrance Day on that day, so a reminder to wear your formal attire, as well as a poppy.
- Reminder to the Anti-Racism team that there is a meeting today at the start of lunch in the library. Please be on time.

UPCOMING:

- Reminder of our DYAC meeting on Wednesday, Nov. 10th after school in the library - see you then!
